LAW OF THE UNITED STATES.
Passed at the Third Session of the Forty First Congress.

[PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.]

In conformity to the requirements of the preceding paragraph, a table marked A is herewith annexed, enumerating the countries with which, and specifying the terms and conditions on which, Ecuador may exchange correspondence by way of the United States.

Correspondence of the class must be accompanied by a letter from the dispatching exchange office of Ecuador, specifying the amount due thereon to the United States, and the receiving exchange office of the United States shall return by next post such dispatching exchange office an acknowledgment of receipt and verification thereof, which letter bills and acknowledgments of receipt shall be in conformity to the models B and C, herewith annexed, and shall serve as vouchers in the settlement of the accounts.

The accounts to be kept between the two Post Departments upon this class of correspondence shall be stated quarterly, transmitted and verified as speedily as practicable; and the amounts found due shall be paid promptly to the United States office, under such regulations as the respective Post Departments may from time to time prescribe. Such quarterly statement shall be prepared by the United States office and shall follow the form D, herewith annexed.

ARTICLE 7.
Letters originating in foreign countries and addressed to the United States or Ecuador, respectively, on which the foreign and international postal charges are fully prepaid, shall, when forwarded in the mails of either country to the other, be delivered in the country of destination free of charge.

ARTICLE 8.
The official correspondence between the two governments, that of each government with its legation near the other, and of each legation with its government, shall be conveyed to its destination free of postage and with all the precautions which the two governments may find necessary for its inviolability.

ARTICLE 9.
When in one of the two countries there is no legation of the other, the franking privilege of the vacant legation shall be transferred, in the terms stipulated in the preceding article, to the respective consulate or vice-consulate of New York or Guayaquil.

ARTICLE 10.
Neither Post Department shall be required to deliver any article received in the mails the circulation of which shall be prohibited by the laws in force in the country of destination; and any article subject to the laws of either country, or try to customs duty or to confiscation shall, when received in the mails from the other, be treated in accordance with the laws of the receiving country.

ARTICLE 11.
The two Post Departments may, by mutual agreement, provide for the transmission of interest articles in the mails exchanged between the two countries.

The register fee for each article shall be ten (10) cents in the United States and one (1) real in Ecuador.

ARTICLE 12.
The two Post Departments shall settle, by agreement between them, all measures of detail and arrangement required to carry this convention into execution and may modify the same in like manner, from time to time, as the exigencies of the service may require. Articles may also, by mutual consent, be amended or altered, pressed, according to the requirements of the service, without rescinding or otherwise altering or impairing any other of the articles of this convention.

ARTICLE 13.
This convention shall take effect from the date of the exchange of ratifications, and shall continue in force until annulled by mutual consent or until one year from the date of ratification by one of the two departments to the other of its desire to terminate the same.

ARTICLE 14.
This convention shall be approved and ratified in the manner and form prescribed by the constitution and laws of each of the high contracting parties and the exchange of ratifications shall be made at Washington six months after the last ratification or sooner if possible.

Done at the city of Washington, this ninth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one.

[L. S.] JNO. A. J. CRESWELL,
Postmaster General of the United States.

[L. S.] ANTONIA FLORES,
U. S. GRANT.

By the President:
HAMILTON FISH,
Secretary of State.

[Translation.]

Having seen and examined the foregoing postal convention, which has been approved by the legislative decree of the 1st of the present month, and in exercise of the sixth attribute of the sixteenth article of the constitution, I have ratified it, as by the present I do ratify and declare it accepted, confirmed, and obligatory in all and each of its clauses and stipulations contained in said convention, solemnly engaging and pledging for its faithful and exact observance on the part of Ecuador the national faith and honor.

In faith of which I have caused the present to be prepared, signed with my hand, sealed with the seal of the republic and countersigned by the secretary of state for foreign relations at Quito, the thirtieth of September, eighteen hundred and seventy-one.

[L. S.] G. GARCIA MORENO,
FRANCISCO JAVIER LEON.

We, John A. J. Creswell, Postmaster General of the United States, and Antonio Flores, minister of Ecuador to the United States, certify that on this date we have proceeded to perform the exchange of ratifications of the postal convention which was concluded between the United States and Ecuador at Washington on the 9th day of May, A. D. 1871.

Done in duplicate and signed at Washington this 6th day of December, A. D. 1871.
